Our team can help your next sporting event perform at the highest level.

Orlando's ability to host national and international sporting events is in a league of its own. The NBA All-Star Game. The NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. World Cup Soccer. The Capital One Bowl. The Arnold Palmer Invitational. These are just a few of the signature events we've hosted. And with good reason. Our unrivalled combination of world-class facilities, attractions and transportation infrastructure have made us the world's ultimate destination for sports tourism.

From hotels for any budget to innovative meeting spaces to distinctive dining and entertainment districts...

There's more to meetings and events in Orlando.
