

2021 Winter Cup

BID INFORMATION

EVENT OVERVIEW

The Winter Cup is a three-day competition involving the top gymnasts in the United States. This event will host junior and senior level athletes in Men's and Women's Artistic Gymnastics. This event serves as a reranking event for the National Teams; in which athletes are selected to represent the United States in international competitions. There will be approximately 425 athletes, coaches, judges and staff coming from around the country to participate.

In conjunction with the Winter Cup USA Gymnastics hosts the Nastia Liukin Cup. 2021 will be the 12th year for this prestigious competition for the country's top Junior Olympic gymnasts, selected from a series of invitational meets known as the Nastia Liukin Cup Series. The competition will be held on Saturday evening after the Senior Women's Session.

TELEVISION

USA Gymnastics will broadcast this competition on network television with its broadcast partner NBC Sports. USA Gymnastics will bear the production costs associated with the broadcast. Due to network television times this event will need to be in the Eastern Time Zone.

HOST / PARTNER

Due to the high level of visibility created by this competition, a unique relationship is formed between the host city and USA Gymnastics. A partnership with USA Gymnastics the city, CVB, sports commission, venue and hotel is necessary for a successful event.
