BID INFORMATION

EVENT OVERVIEW

The Winter Cup is a three-day competition involving the top gymnasts in the United States. This event will host junior and senior level athletes in Men's and Women's Artistic Gymnastics. This event serves as a reranking event for the National Teams; in which athletes are selected to represent the United States in international competitions. There will be approximately 425 athletes, coaches, judges and staff coming from around the country to participate.

In conjunction with the Winter Cup USA Gymnastics hosts the Nastia Liukin Cup. 2025 will be the 16th year for this prestigious competition for the country's top Junior Olympic gymnasts, selected from a series of invitational meets known as the Nastia Liukin Cup Series. The competition will be held on Friday evening before or after the Senior Men's Session Day 1 Competition depending on confirmation of broadcast window.

Also taking place is the Elite Team Cup. This premier event features nine men's Regional Teams, each consisting of six junior elite gymnasts. Team scores for the Elite Team Cup will be based on four athletes competing on each event with the top three scores on each event counting.

TELEVISION

USA Gymnastics will broadcast this competition on network television with its broadcast partner NBC Sports. USA Gymnastics will bear the production costs associated with the broadcast.
